In-House Programs

For some time, I have gone to several law firms and presented in-house CLE presentations for both attorneys and paralegals. A sampling of some of those firms have been Ward and Smith, Kilpatrick Stockton, Jordan Price, Poyner and Spruill, the previous firms known as Maupin Taylor and Patterson Dilthey, Nelson Mullins, Cozen O'Connor, McElroy James and Diehl, Kellam and Pettit, Womble Carlyle and others.

I would like to come and hold a presentation for your law firm. I can do that at most any time and most any place for a less expensive price than your attorneys and paralegals would pay if they went separately to a live program. I can do it for one hour or three. I will make it relevant to your concerns and wishes. I will save you time and expense. I hope to hear from you soon.

Two New Bar Approved Ethics Hours on DVD

The North Carolina State Bar has recently approved two new Ethics and Professionalism programs, to be available by DVD and online on January 1, 2010 at www.blackburnseminars.com. Each program is inter-active and counts for one full hour of CLE credit.

Wade Smith, a prominent North Carolina defense attorney and Alan Schneider, who specializes in representing professionals before state licensing boards, such as the North Carolina State Bar, each sat down with me this fall and talked about their philosophy of successfully practicing law. What they have to say is important, insightful and at times entertaining. The hour will go fast. It is a different way to take CLE.

Bruno DeMolli, the Staff Auditor for the North Carolina State Bar, spoke at one of my live programs some time ago, where he thoroughly walked everyone through the requirements of maintaining a trust account in compliance with the rules and regulations of the Bar. I cannot think of a more important hour to spend in CLE than this one. I know...I wish I had done it years ago.

These two new programs will be offered at the low price of $60.00 each. You will be able to take them online or buy a copy of the DVD. They are good!

Live Webcasting in January

Within the next several weeks, I will be posting on my website's calendar, a schedule for live webcasting of at least three hours of Ethics and Professionalism that will include the one hour of Mental Health/Substance Abuse study. This will not count against the attorney requirement of four hours online study per year, since the program will be live. It will be a great and easy way for attorneys to get those needed hours before the end of February, 2010.

For now, you can still go online at www.blackburnseminars.com and take that Ethics requirement. For paralegals, there is no change...just a new addition soon of a live webcasting program.

New Website Changes in January

With the addition of new live, online and DVD programs, we are not only going to include new and more involved Course Descriptions but also a visual online preview of each program. With just a click, you will be able to access, for each Course, my own personal description of what each program is about and what it can offer you.

New Live Mental Health Hour

The North Carolina State Bar has just approved a new live one hour program on mental health, that is in addition to the present one...It is titled "Living Your Life in Technicolor"...more information on this program soon.

In 1993, I turned in my license to practice law in North Carolina, with the result that the Bar subsequently issued a letter of disbarment. As you might imagine, I talk about these matters freely in all my programs.
